

Quiz

What do you know about natural gas? Take this quiz and see.

1. You notice blowing dirt or dead vegetation outside. There's no obvious explanation. Could this be a sign of a gas leak?
 Yes
 No
2. A pungent, skunk-like or rotten egg odor can be a sign of a natural gas leak.
 True
 False
3. You hear a blowing or roaring sound near a natural gas pipeline, or a hissing or whistling sound near a natural gas appliance. Could this signal a natural gas leak?
 Yes
 No
4. The following are important actions to take in a natural gas emergency. Which should you do first? Put in order from 1 – 4.
 Move to a safe position upwind.
 Call 911 and the natural gas operator from a safe distance.
 Evacuate the building immediately.
 Wait to re-enter the building until you've received the all-clear.
5. When responding to a natural gas leak or odor, there are some things NOT to do. Which of these actions puts you in a dangerous situation?
 Trying to find the source of the leak.
 Attempting to repair or stop the leak.
 Walking or driving into a leak or vapor cloud.
6. Natural gas is extremely flammable. In the event of a leak, it's important not to create an ignition source. Which of the following actions could create an ignition source and start a fire?
 Using your desk phone / landline. Pulling the fire alarm.
 Using your cell phone. Switching lights on or off.
 Using the public address (PA) system.
7. There's a special number to call before you dig in your yard or at school to make sure you won't hit any buried utilities. What is that number?
 411 811
 611 911