

Alliant Energy® Customer-Hosted Renewables

Kohler Solar Field

The Kohler Solar Field is Alliant Energy's largest customer-hosted solar project. It became operational in 2022. This partnership between Kohler Co., SunPeak and Alliant Energy will provide safe, reliable, clean energy for decades to come. The 2.25-megawatt (MW) solar site moves Kohler Co. closer to its clean energy goals.

Why solar?

Clean energy, including solar, has become increasingly cost effective. Solar creates environmental benefits customers will enjoy for many years with no added fuel costs and low operation and maintenance costs. This solar project is a key element of Kohler's Better Planet environmental strategy to help reduce the company's carbon footprint and bring valuable, long-term benefits to the community.

Alliant Energy will own and operate the Kohler Solar Field to efficiently deliver affordable, reliable and safe energy to homes, businesses and communities. Partnering with customers to develop solar projects is just another way we keep our customers at the heart of everything we do.

Clean Energy Blueprint

The Kohler Solar Field is part of Alliant Energy's Clean Energy Blueprint, a strategic roadmap to cost-effectively accelerate renewable energy and reduce carbon emissions. Alliant Energy's sustainability goals include eliminating all coal from our generation fleet by 2040 and aspiring to achieve net-zero carbon dioxide emissions from the electricity we generate by 2050.

Alliant Energy works tirelessly to modernize its utility grid for the benefit of future generations of customers across Wisconsin and Iowa. We build smarter energy infrastructure to deliver cleaner, more reliable and resilient energy to all customers, and maintain affordable rates. A smarter grid means customers get more control, choices and flexibility.

Partnering with businesses to develop solar projects is just another way we keep our customers at the heart of everything we do. For more information on the Alliant Energy® Customer-Hosted Renewables program and the benefits to local businesses and communities, visit alliantenergy.com/solar.
